At a certain point in time, estimated to be roughly 1/5 to 1/4 of the way through September, there is a sudden, sharp, ~~extremely brief outburst of violence~~ shouting, flames, smoke, perhaps explosions, people running here and there, shooting down hill, in an arid, austere region. ~~Combat involved are fairly~~ large, OD cylindrical objects with appendages. Vehicles are present, as is anger, excitement, hate, and fear. Strong AOL or AOL/S of ~~combat~~ was suggested. Burning rubber smell is present, as is an old structure. The area is rocky with hills round about. Impression of looking up, ~~seeing~~ an aircraft. People involved are non-US, located in a non-US area, and are shorter, darker, some with mustaches and perhaps wearing a greenish, brownish sort of uniform.
